CAIRO SYRUP MAKERS WALLOPED BY THE BULLDOGS 7-0 IN SECOND MEETING OF CURRENT SEASON

By J. P. WIKER, Jr.
Last night, in perfect football weather and before a crowd that completely filled the local stadium, the Thomsen Bulldogs fell prey to the Cairo Syrupmakers' second quarter touchdown drive in a 7-0 victory in the first meeting of the current season.

The Syrupmakers have greatly improved their technique since earlier in the season when the Bulldogs journeyed to Cairo to down them 26-0. Each time the ball was returned it was handed to Drew who either ran it himself or reversed it to other members of the Syrupmaker backfield. The change in the Bulldogs' strategy, however, did not strengthen the team enough to stop the onslaught of the Syrupmakers.

Unable to run freely on the field, the Bulldogs took to the air and threw for 200 yards. The Cairo left tackle for 25 yards, the longest bulging gain of the game. Carr chose to run and added 5 more yards before he tripped on the Syrupmakers' 22. A reverse to Carr brought a nine-yard gain. A punt for 40 yards against Thomsen's carried the ball back to the Bulldogs' 40 yard line. The Bulldogs' quickkick to the Syrupmakers' 4 yard line was brought down after a 4 yard gain by Mississippi. However, Thomsen was forced to punt after a first down. Following a 1 yard gain by Lane, Collins broke through center for 10 but the play was called back to the 21 yard line. Carr threw a 21 yard pass to a lateral from Drew which was fumbled on 12 yard. Two more runs by Lane and Drew put the Syrupmakers 15 yards closer to the

MIKE JACOBS DRAWS BIG CROWDS TODAY WITH SMALL FRY

New York, Nov. 10 (AP)—Mike Jacobs, 20th Century Sporting Club boxing promoter, knew today he doesn't need to draw a lot of fans to get a big crowd.

His night 177½ lbs. fight 195, which was a show match in the 19th round, drew a crowd of 10,000 to the Madison Square Garden, and five of the six scraps were won from New York or Brooklyn, and the other a recent consolation from the West Coast.

In the feature, 115-pound Harold Green, ex-champion from Brooklyn, won the nod over Tommy (Hook) Crutcher, 120 lb. of the East Side, in an exciting scrap as the Garden has seen in a long time. Green, after having three runs down to the fourth and fifth, hit the deck himself for a four-count in the last half-minute of the bout, and was on the verge of a knockout when the bell rang.

The brand had the customer's standing on the seats, and a rematch seems a certainty, but Mr. Jacobs isn't overbooked on fights in these days of tight finances.

In the other 10 rounds of tonight's show, the 10th rounder being fought on the East Side, 175, stopped Monty Picinatore of Brooklyn, 127 lb. of the West Side, and Danny Kipfling, 130 lb. of the Bronx, with an easy verdict over Richard Smith, 147, of Fresno, Calif.

DIKE BLUE DEVILS OUT TO BEAT TECH AT DURHAM TODAY

Durham, N. C., Nov. 4—(AP)—Duke's Blue Devils, beaten in the last four starts, marshalled their forces today for a shot at stopping Georgia Tech's Bulldogging Week, which has been the talk of the college world.

Duke holds an eight to three edge in the previous 11 games with Georgia Tech, but was a slight underdog for the 12th meeting, due to the loss of several key men for Duke's V-12 transfers.

The Bulldogging Week, which has been the talk of the college world, is expected to be a highly competitive one.
