

BULLDOGS BOW TO VALDOSTA MATS 24-0

STROM AND YOUNG LEAD CATS TO FOUR TOUCHDOWNS OVER A LIGHTER THOMASVILLE ELEVEN

Power, Speed and Deception of Whirlwind Attack Rout Bulldogs in Annual Battle Before Large Holiday Crowd in Valdosta. — Bulldogs Lack Old Time Fire.

HURST MAKES GALLANT FIGHT FOR T. H. S.

Alert Valdosta Secondary Stops Canine Passing Attack In Critical Moments and Wildcats Make Use of Their Own Arms—Game to Cross the Goal Line.

By JAMES HUNT, JR.
A whirlwind gathered itself tonight on Cleveland field in Valdosta as the two teams met in the annual battle before a large holiday crowd. The Bulldogs, led by Tom Young and Tom Strom, were victorious over the Thomasville team, 24-0. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

It was a large crowd of more than a thousand fans that gathered tonight on Cleveland field in Valdosta to witness the annual battle between the Bulldogs and the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

The Bulldogs, led by Tom Young and Tom Strom, were victorious over the Thomasville team, 24-0. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

The Bulldogs, led by Tom Young and Tom Strom, were victorious over the Thomasville team, 24-0. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

The Bulldogs, led by Tom Young and Tom Strom, were victorious over the Thomasville team, 24-0. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

The Bulldogs, led by Tom Young and Tom Strom, were victorious over the Thomasville team, 24-0. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

The Bulldogs, led by Tom Young and Tom Strom, were victorious over the Thomasville team, 24-0. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

The Bulldogs, led by Tom Young and Tom Strom, were victorious over the Thomasville team, 24-0. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team. The game was a tactical battle, with the Bulldogs using their speed and deception to outmaneuver the Thomasville team.

MISS. FOOTBALL PLAYER COLLAPSED AND DIED ON FIELD FROM INJURIES

Chattanooga, Nov. 12 (AP)—A 17-year-old football player from the University of Tennessee collapsed and died on the field from injuries sustained during a game yesterday.

FRIDAY FOOTBALL SCORES

Georgia, 27; Clemson, 18. Newberry, 12; Franklin, 0. Athens, 12; Howard, 0. Northwestern University, 14; Louisiana College, 0. Wake Forest, 20; Carolina, 10. Louisiana Normal, 31; Mississippi, 0. Tennessee, 19. Fayetteville, 27; Citadel, 0. High Point, 13; Appalachian, 0. Mercer, 25; Chattanooga, 0. Mississippi State, 9; Southwestern, 10; 0.

HOW DID IT HAPPEN?

By N. Y. H.
Well, it just happened, just as we know it would happen and just as we know it would happen, referring of course to the title sets on the new football season when the Bulldogs are to play their first game.

AUBURN AND OATONS TO PLAY IN MONTGOMERY

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 12 (AP)—The annual football game between Auburn University and Oatons College is scheduled for Friday in Montgomery.

CRIMSON TIDE RULES AS FAVORITE TO BEAT THE ENGINEERS TODAY

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12 (AP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide is favored to beat Georgia Tech in their football game today.

FOOTBALL BATTLES AUBURN HAS BEST CHANCE OF TRIO OF LEADING ELEVENS

Sectional and National Ratings To Be Clarified As Result of Today's Games. Tennessee and Vanderbilt Also at Cross Roads in Race For Conference Title.

By ROBERT BUNNELL
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12 (AP)—A preview of the 1933 Southern Conference football championship game between Auburn and Vanderbilt is being held tonight at the Georgia Hotel.

The bid of Auburn to continue its record of triumph was lessened by the fact that the game between Auburn and Vanderbilt for the title was heavily favored to Vanderbilt. The bid of Auburn to continue its record of triumph was lessened by the fact that the game between Auburn and Vanderbilt for the title was heavily favored to Vanderbilt.

In one department Vanderbilt seemed slightly ahead by the Volunteers' better showing in the game. Vanderbilt's better showing in the game was a result of their better advantage. Vanderbilt's better showing in the game was a result of their better advantage.

The intersection angle, cut to a minimum as usual, seemed to favor Auburn. The intersection angle, cut to a minimum as usual, seemed to favor Auburn. The intersection angle, cut to a minimum as usual, seemed to favor Auburn.

Yesterday at Chattanooga, Mercer of Macon, Ga., clinched the Dixie race title by trouncing the Orange County, Fla., team, 23-0. Yesterday at Chattanooga, Mercer of Macon, Ga., clinched the Dixie race title by trouncing the Orange County, Fla., team, 23-0.

GEORGIA BULLDOGS RUN WILD ON CLEMSON FIELD TO WIN BY SCORE 32-18

Clemson College, S. C., Nov. 12 (AP)—The Georgia Bulldogs invaded the Clemson field today and won by a score of 32-18. The Georgia Bulldogs invaded the Clemson field today and won by a score of 32-18.

The Tigers lost the score in the second period with a 23-yard pass from Woodward to Stevens. The Tigers lost the score in the second period with a 23-yard pass from Woodward to Stevens. The Tigers lost the score in the second period with a 23-yard pass from Woodward to Stevens.

On the kick-off of the third period, the Bulldogs caught the ball and ran for a touchdown. On the kick-off of the third period, the Bulldogs caught the ball and ran for a touchdown. On the kick-off of the third period, the Bulldogs caught the ball and ran for a touchdown.

FLIPPER'S
Where quality materials and workmanship count
207 South Broad Street

LOVETT'S
REGULAR VALUES

Country Smoked SAUSAGE	15c
Choice Lean PORK CHOPS	15c
Pure Creamery BUTTER	22c
Fresh Country EGGS	29c

VISIT LOVETT'S DAILY

Have Your SHOES Repaired at AL-
FLIPPER'S

Where quality materials and workmanship count
207 South Broad Street

HATS
Cleaned and Mended
Cash—50c—Carry
EDDIE LEWIS
322 West Jackson Street