HOW DID IT HAPPEN?

Preelia Pelham, infuriated at no-bitten-sportsmanly, does that sound like it?

The Pelham Hornets lived up to their name at the stadium last night and in defeat were peppy as ever.

Tech did not have much trouble with Pelham, a very small college but still maintaining a definite football standard.

The Crackerjacks again to Little Rock, making it two in one against the Atlanta club in the play-off to decide the series with Texas League teams.

The Kentucky-Vandy game today will be the best on the Southern calendar. If you like the big fellows, the chances are that it will be the key game in win for the first time in fifteen years.

The Florida Gators are out in Baton Rouge to give the Tigers of Louisiana the first chance to show what they have this season. The poor Gators will have to take it on the chin but maybe at that they will not be as bad as Georgia was last year.

Cordell took again last night five to three in the Gainesville, Florida G-Men in the play-off between the two D leagues. This leaves it three to one with the deciding game, maybe, played in Albany on a Sunday afternoon. The crowd should be a big one, even if it is not as interesting as that of two weeks ago.

Politeness, our John A. son, living at Mason, starts at quarter for the University of Georgia Bulldogs today. He will lead the team against the Oglethorpe University and the Bulldogs are supposed to iron out the ragged edge and make in a showing of what will follow this season. Hadden is an outstanding student in every way.

Johnson said yesterday that a key showing game would be held at the country club this week for the benefit of the Georgia Bulldogs. The game would be between the visitors who like to shoot even after the sun has set, and the home team who like to shoot even after the sun has set.

THOMASVILLE HIGH BULLDOGS FLASH SPEEDY ATTACK IN ROLLING UP BIG SCORE OVER GAME PELHAM HIGH TEAM

Pony Backs Display Nimble Heels In Sweeping End Runs and Off Tackle Thrusts—Bulldogs Score 6 Touchdowns—Two Hornet Stars As Injured.

By ALBERT RILEY, JR.
Coach J. K. "Doc" Harper ruled his 18th Thomasville High school football team out on the municipal stadium grounds last night and the Bulldogs proceeded to turn loose their pony backs in a speedy running attack that rolled up a 42-0 score against Pelham High's game but outclassed Hornets.

It was a spectacular, almost effortless Bulldogs won their opening game of the 1937 football season and the light, fast and speedy backs carried the ball in six touchdowns behind very effective blocking. There were no sacks and no fumbles, though that proved devastating to Pelham's hopes and surprised even the Thomasville fans.

Through the second half ball carriers stealing the show, the Thomasville offense displayed a much more effective attack than had been anticipated and their speedy backs rolled up a 42-0 score in the fourth quarter with a 10-yard run from Leitch, which came late in the game. Meanwhile the Bulldogs rolled up fourteen first downs during the fray.

Wallace Tucker, the big full-back, scored the first touchdown with a 10-yard punt return and then on the ground gaining and having shuttles were picked up and carried on solely by Joe Leitch, Tom Vann, David Brandon and Jack Chiles. They ran with a lot of speed and they were weaving, dodging and digging ahead for distance. They were quick and strong, and the entire team showed much more aggression than did last year's Thomasville team.

Little full-back Tom Vann, 200-pound reserve halfback, captured the fancy of the crowd with his line performance. He was a Jack rabbit, here one moment, gone the next—forward Pelham's line.

SYRUP-MAKERS IN NEARLY HALF MILLION FANS TO SEE GRID SEASON OPENERS

Ohio State Meets T. C. U. and California Plays St. Mary's in Headliners.

By HUGH B. FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—Close to a half million football fans—a big crowd in any more language—were expected to turn out for a score of the big games today as the curtain rolled up for the grand opening of the 1937 season.

This gathering, unusual for this time of the year to say the least, was being held for the first time since the "major" attractions usually are just starting. In every way, the season was being opened with a bang, and the crowd that turned out annually for such games.

Harling the far western season off with a bang, and incidentally giving an early look on the conference championship and line school prospects, California and St. Mary's expected to draw 80,000, and St. Mary's expected to draw 40,000, while the International favored over Iowa's Hawkeyes was expected to draw 25,000.

The four-star attraction of them all, however, was the meeting in which the two teams from the Midwest, Ohio State and Texas Christian, the Buckeyes and the Horned Ranges, were expected to draw 70,000.

Minnesota in football fever, however, for 52,000 were expected to watch mighty Minnesota beat out North Dakota State.

Three other Big Ten outfits, Illinois, Indiana and Purdue, faced stiff opposition in Ohio University, Centre and Butler, respectively. Wisconsin wasn't looking for trouble from North Dakota State.

In the east two teams, when the football season opened, were expected to draw 25,000. Cornell and Penn State, the two teams, facing Bates, were the only "ivy league" members to swing into action, but Navy started off with a bang, beating Army 14-7.

HE HAS TO BE SHOWN—Moultrie University's Coach Don Farnell, before he can let the twin brothers apart in football practice. That's Robert on the left and Roland on the right. He is in both ends for the end position, which makes Farnell's task tougher and creates a possible game for the opposition. The brothers' home is St. Louis. For all concerned it is a case of both ends against the middle.
