Third Period

Cordele received the kick-off, ...ittle Billy King getting it back ...yards in a nice run to the Cor...

...from their own 35.

Hayes, Cordele halfback who had played well, went out of the game with an injury.

Thames failed at tackle so Letchas rammed right guard for a first down at midfield and on a double reverse sped 25 yards to the Cordele 25 for another first down. Letchas got three and Thames two and then Letchas passed to Posey for 12 yards and a first down at the Cordele nine. Letchas got two at center and then passed to Posey in the end zone for a touchdown. And although the try for extra point went astray, Thomasville had a much more comfortable lead of 12-0.

After the next kick-off, a penalty and a 10-yard pass from King to Musselwhite got the Cordelians their initial first down of the game. Punt exchanges ensued when Letchas booting one to Cordele's 20 as the third period ended.

Fourth Period

The Bulldogs took another Cordele punt at midfield early in the fourth quarter. A pass was incomplete so Letchas charged off right tackle for nine yards and six count 'em Cordele players tackled him. But he rammed right guard for a first down at the Cordele 36.

A long pass from Letchas hit Thames but his chest was in the way and he missed it in the clear.

So, Gus called back to pass again. He found no receiver open, so he started running around his own left end and he started wriggling his way through the entire Cordele team, getting some blocking and walking his way to the Cordele 15 where he got away and sped down the sidelines for a touchdown. It was a sparkling run and one particular block helped him on his way. It looked from the press box like Setterich who took out the last tackler.

Thames booted the extra point and the score was 19-0.

Cordele again took the kick-off and their passes missed fire so they punted and Letchas quick kicked back 58 yards over the goal line. From their 20, the invaders from Cordele got a first down on an 11-yard pass, King to Musselwhite, but the hapless Cordelians fumbled at their 35 and when the players were unscrambled the Bulldogs had the ball at Cordele's 35.

Letchas' pass to Inman got three yards and again Gus hit Thames with an aerial but Thames missed it. So Letchas punted out of bounds in the coffin corner, getting it out on the Cordele 3-yard line and setting the stage for another touchdown run.

Rush punted out from behind his goal line to Letchas on Cordele's 36 and Thomasville's one-man gang started running back with it. He sped to the left, flitted this way and that and traced on across the goal line as Jack Setterich again took out the last tackler with a beautiful block.

The try for extra point was missed but the Bulldogs had amassed a 25-0 lead.

Well, that was the ball game. Little else happened except that Cordele got a couple more first downs and Thomasville's second and third stringers started going into the lineup to finish the game and hold the Cordelians in check. So confusing was the large number of Bulldog substitutions on one occasion that they ran through the play with only ten men on the field.

Curly Payne sparked the Pelham offensive, passing and clinaxing touchdown drives for the first and fourth touchdowns and passing to George Summerford for 15-yard gains and the second and third tallies.

Despite the absence of Hurst and Watson, two regulars, from their line-up, the Hornets outclassed Ashburn and played in the visitors' territory all night. Malloy took over Hurst's tackle and Brim was replacing Watson at quarterback. Featuring the game was the hard, fast charge of the Pelham line.

Next week Pelham and Nashville meet here in a feature Sowega Conference combat, neither team having been defeated within the conference.

SYLVESTER WINS 20-0 DECISION AT CAMILLA

Eagles Convert Panther Aerial Attempts Into Scoring Opportunities

Camilla, Ga., Oct. 28.—After both teams had battled for three periods without a score, Sylvester's Eagles converted three Camilla pass attempts into scoring opportunities and thrice crossed the Panthers' goal line in the final quarter to win 20-0 decision.

Meredith Smith of Sylvester grabbed the first of the fateful Camilla passes in the final period and raced it back across the Panthem double stripe. Malcolm Conner of the Eagles intercepted the next two, paving the way for Sylvester to punch over for touchdowns in series of short gains.

INTERSECTIONAL GAMES TOP THE NATION'S CARD

Cornell Meets Ohio State, Yale Plays Michigan as Irish Face Carnegie Tech

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Oct. 28 (AP).—No matter how you look at the dozens of good games on the college football program this mid-season Saturday afternoon, three of them stand out head and shoulders above the rest.

They're all east-midwest intersectional games—Cornell vs. Ohio State, Yale vs. Michigan and Carnegie Tech vs. Notre Dame.

Considering the known strength of the teams, their records and prestige, about the only other contests that might be mentioned in the same breath are North Carolina vs. Pennsylvania, Purdue vs. Santa Clara and two Pacific Coast Conference clashes, Oregon's C. C. L. A. and Southern California-California.

Take the first, for example. Ohio State shows with Myerian the lead in the Big Ten. Cornell has come up with an unusually fine team, perhaps the best in the east.

Yale with a rather unimpressive record, hardly figures to give Michigan trouble, but there's the old knock-kee that Yale forgets how to play football every now and then.

Although younger than Yale's, Notre Dame's football tradition is almost as strong. And a part of it is that Carnegie is one team Rockne likes to beat the Irish.

Don't let those names figures to ... scores or their fans. The ... except Purdue-Santa Clara ... the Oregon and up class as ... attractions.

FLORIDA FRESHMEN DEFEATED, 13-2, BY AUBURN FROSH

Tallahassee, Fla., Oct. 28 (AP).—Florida heavy freshman football eleven went down to a 13-2 defeat before the powerful Auburn frosh here last night.

The out-manned Baby Gators scored their two points when Monk Gafford, Auburn fullback, was unable to handle a poor snapback and was nailed behind the goal line. After that, the Plainsmen yearlings started going places.

Halfback Garlord plunged over from the four-yard line for a touchdown in the first period, climaxing a 69-yard Auburn march. The placekick from extra point was blocked.

The Auburn frosh intercepted a Gator pass on the Florida 42 to start their final touchdown drive. Morris passing to Clayton for eight yards as da score. Morris kicked the extra point to make it 13-2.

The Plainsmen led in first downs, 12 to seven.

With Chipley Tigers

By LUTHER BRYANT

Dainbridge, Ga. Oct 28.—Outplayed, outclassed and outsmarted for the entire game the Bainbridge High Bearcats were fortunate to escape with a 6-0 tie in their game with the mighty Chipley Florida Tigers here last night.

The Tigers ran rings around the Bearcats for the whole battle and kept the ball in Bainbridge's territy for about three-fourths of the time, and the 'Cats were forced to make goal line stands frequently.

If it had not been for the beautiful kicking of Raleigh Rollins the 'Cats would have been beaten by a large score. These kicks were mostly from deep down in Bainbridge territory and traveled at a nice altitude and great distance.

The Chipley team was about the same weight as the Bearcats, but the spirit was higher on the Florida squad than in the Bainbridge camp. The Floridians never let up for a minute and always had the jump on the 'Cats. The line of Chipley was fast and was always ready to go on offense and defense. The 'Cats' line was the slowest that it has been the entire season, for the Chipley squad always got the jump and spilled the ball carrier very frequently.

Williams, the fullback for Chipley, was plenty fast and had the power of a ten-ton tractor. He could easily carry the passing for the necessary yardage for a first down. Ed Cooper, halfback, was shifty and fast and carried, passed and punted for the visitors. Griffin, the center of Chipley, was a great tackler and broke through the Bearcats line on several occasions to spill the ball carrier for large losses. To mention all these plays would be nearly impossible for all the squad played headsup football for four quarters.

The outstanding players of the 'Cats were Rollins, Harrell and Jennings. Rollins gave the visitors plenty of worry with his great punting and ball carrying.

B. W. Harrell, left end, played his best game, for he was in on every play and made some beautiful tackles set the visitors back for large losses. Jennings, tackle, was the life of the team for his chatter helped to keep up the Bearcats' spirit and his tackling at occasion was great.

First Half

Rollins won the toss and chose to receive. Boles kicked to B. W. Harrell on Bainbridge's 25 and he returned the ball to 38.

The Cats collected a first down and were on their way for another when Lane fumbled and Roberts of Chipley recovered.

Cooper hit the line for two. Rollins and Harrell made the tackle. Kirkland and Williams failed to gain the necessary yardage as Flowers and Patterson tackled. Cooper punted out of bounds on 32.

An exchange of punts and Williams passed to Cooper for 20 yards. Kirkland got six yards as Harrell broke through for the tackle. An exchange of punts by Cooper and Rollins. Williams, Cooper and Kirkland got a first down. Kirkland failed to gain as Harrell stopped the advance. Cooper took to the air but this failed and Bainbridge took the ball over on downs.

Ward, Belote and Rollins made it a first down. Rollins got air-minded but failed. Rollins kicked to Chipley on Chipley's 20 returned to 40. Kirkland lost yardage as B. W. Harrell broke through. Aerials followed and a punt was forced on Cooper. The 'Cats failed to gain and Rollins punted to Cooper on 50.

Cooper's pass was intercepted by Rollins. The 'Cats got air-minded but failed to click. Rollins punted as the half ended.

2nd Half

Billy Belote was unable to return to the game due to a head injury. Harrell kicked to Williams on Chipley's 20. Harrell was injured and removed from the game.

The Chipley aerial bombardment clicked for five yards. Cooper was spilled for a five yard loss by Loyd Finch. Williams made a first down in three attempts. Bainbridge was penalized for holding. Flowers broke through to spill Cooper for a loss. Williams in his first failure to gain was forced to pass but was incomplete as Ward batted it down in the end zone.

TULANE-OLE MISS TECH-AUBURN, LSU AND VANDY GAMES

Top S-E Card as Tide Meets Miss. State and Georgia Invades N.Y.U.

(By The Associated Press)

Four intra-loop contests offering double-dose brands of thrills and action in two intersectional games were the Southeastern conference's main mid-season offerings to the football world today.

Down in New Orleans, Tulane and Mississippi promised the fans an eyeful of grid tactics. Both clubs put up undefeated records, and the pre-game soothsayers said it was anybody's game.

At Atlanta, Georgia Tech and Auburn wrote another chapter in their 54 years of football rivalry with the Techsters seeking to keep their no-loss rating inside the conference clear.

Alabama's hard hitting Crimson Tide was host to the tough Mississippi State outfit that Pascaloosa Spectators looked for a stadium full of passes in the fracas between Vanderbilt and Louisiana State University at Nashville.

Sewanee started off the week-end yesterday by taking a 6-0 decision, from Southwestern.

Georgia's Bulldogs, although showing some improvement of late, were the underdogs in their match with New York University in New York. In another intersectional tilt Florida lined up against Maryland in the latter's backyard at College Park.

Tennessee, defending champion and dubbed by some as the "perfect" team, took Mercer University on for a breather at Knoxville.

At Fitzgerald

Fitzgerald, Ga., Oct. 28.—Sam Cain, whose end play and punting was brilliant all night, took the ball on an end-around in the closing moments of the game and raced 21 yards for a touchdown here last night to give Cairo's Syrup-Makers a 6-0 victory over Fitzgerald.

This lone touchdown that enabled the Syrup-Makers to brush aside the Purple Hurricane of Fitzgerald was the only scoring threat of the game as the invaders thwarted every Fitz-Hi offensive gesture and rolled up a decided edge in yardage. First downs were ten for Cairo and four for Fitzgerald.

Herman Dollar was the Syrup-Makers' leading ball carrier while Captain Gene Barrineau was a defensive star.

Play was mostly in Fitzgerald territory throughout the game. Cain's punting outdistancing those of the Purples' kicker.

The Syrup-Makers completed both of the only two passes they attempted durin gtne game and successfully stopped Fitzgerald's aerial attack in the third quarter when the Hurricane took unsuccessfully to the air.

Standouts for Fitz-Hi were Reeves at tackle and Whittle at fullback on defense while their offensive drive was paced by McNease at halfback and Sims, quarterback.

MUMPS AND POISON IVY WRECK FOOTBALL SQUAD

Torrington, Wyo., Oct. 28 (AP).—One coach had the mumps. The other walked through a poison ivy patch. So the Sunrise-Torrington high school football game was called off.

P. D. Some Sunrise players have the mumps too.

Sunset, wide-ranking Gus Letchas made Thomasville's last two touchdowns with sparkling sprints of 36 and 35 yards. The game was played at Thomasville and continued the Bulldogs' unbeaten splurge.

Playing before 4,000 spectators at home, the Albany Indians went on the warpath and ran the Tifton Blue Devils ragged with a 36 to 7 decision.

Quarterback Felix Marbury led the attack, scoring two touchdowns and taking a leading part in holding the Blue Devils in check. It was Albany's third conference victory, against no defeats.

The Red Terrors of Brunswick, the conference's only other unbeaten eleven, wore themselves out in a non-conference tilt at home with Sylvania, winning, 56 to 0. The second team made as many points as the first stringers.

Waycross and Valdosta each had 3,000 fans on the edges of their seats at the Valdosta field in a closely fought contest which the visitors won, 6 to 0. Both sides made seven first downs.

Joe Davis, ace of the Valdosta offense, was injured and forced to leave the game. Stars for Waycross
