

TIFTON BLUE DEVILS DEFEAT BULLDOGS 7-6

Fumbles, Intercepted Passes Prove Costly to Thomasville

By Ed Kelly

Tifton's Coach Eric Davis, strong Tifton Blue Devils captured on Thomasville fumbles, intercepted passes and introduced a new backfield star to defeat the Bulldogs, 7-6, here last night.

Approximately 2000 spectators watched the first game of the season at the new stadium. The game was a regular season game for the Blue Devils and the Bulldogs, who are in the fourth quarter of the season.

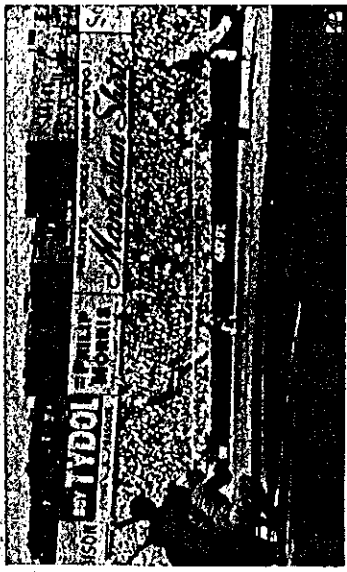

Thomasville's first quarter was a beautiful 30-yard pass from the quarterback to the receiver, which was intercepted by Tifton's star player, Ray Baker.

The extra point attempt was blocked by Tifton's defense.
