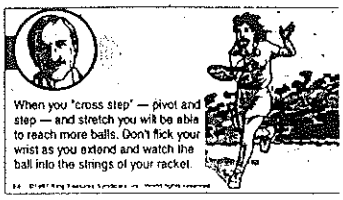
STAN SMITH'S TENNIS CLASS

GETTING MORE REACH

At the net, you can get to more balls than you think you can, if you're not timid or think negatively about your chances. Turn, stretch and extend your arm fully to reach wide balls.



When you "cross step" — pivot and step — and stretch you will be able to reach more balls. Don't flick your wrist as you extend and watch the ball into the strings of your racket.

Brookwood rolls to easy win

By TRAVIS HANEY

THOMASVILLE — Behind the potent running tandem of Ryan Mizell and Wesley Brown, the Brookwood Warriors pummeled visiting Curtis Baptist 50-6 Friday night.

Brown and Mizell ran over and around opposing defenders all evening long. Mizell rushed 15 times for 158 yards, with three touchdowns.

Brown rushed eight times for 156 yards, with three rushing touchdowns as well.

Often overlooked but deserving respect was the Brookwood offensive line, which had several key blocks, springing Mizell and Brown from the back field.

On the third play from scrimmage, Brown broke a 40-yard TD opening the Brookwood scoring. On the ensuing Curtis Baptist possession, Jason Hurst picked off a Matt Williams pass. Hurst pulled down three interceptions on the night.

After Mizell scores of 2, 34, and 12 yards — and a Brown score of 34 yards — the Warriors took a 31-6 lead to the half. In the second half it was much of the same as Brookwood was dominant on both sides of the ball. After Brown and Mizell scored once more apiece, the scoring was capped by a Tony Bracey 41-yard jaunt.

Defensively the Warriors were led by Mizell, with 12 tackles; Bracey, with four sacks; and emotionally by Bob Horne, who hit receiver Sung Lee causing him to drop a potential touchdown pass, ending all hope for Curtis.

The Warriors now look ahead to next Friday, when they meet Terrell Academy in Dawson.

quarterback Marcus Bonner. Bonner drove the Vikings 68 yards on seven plays to give Lowndes a 14-0 lead. The Vikings would add another second-quarter score when Bonner hit Ratliff on a 7-yard pass to take a 21-0 halftime lead.

"Lowndes has enough weapons on offense to stay the No. 1 team in the state a long time," Johnson said. "I don't think you'll find a better team talent-wise in Georgia. They're only going to get better as the season goes along."

The depth of Lowndes also eventually wore down the Bulldogs.

While the Vikings were able to bring in player after player, the Bulldogs were hurt by the Lowndes bench. Quarterback Dion Graham injured his ankle early in the game and never got any rest. Center Bo Grady injured his knee, wide receiver Melvin Clark hurt his arm and tailback Clifton Filmore was also injured.

"No one saw the true Dion (Friday)," Johnson said. "His passes didn't look good because he couldn't transfer the weight on his feet. I've never seen him as off target as he was (Friday)."

While the game seemed out of reach at halftime, Thomasville came roaring back, but mistakes hurt their cause.

After a big pass play from Graham to Filmore, Thomasville turned the ball over on a lateral. Another drive ended when Lowndes intercepted a Graham pass.

Perhaps the most telling blow of the game came when Filmore caught a screen pass from Graham and raced to the Vikings' end zone — only to have the ball knocked out of his hands at the goal line for a touchback.

"We fell behind 21-0 at halftime, and we didn't quit," Johnson said. "I saw it in their eyes, they were not about to give up. That's the sign of a true champion.

"Down 20 at halftime, a lot of teams give up and get blown out. Our players thought they were going to come back and win this game."

Lowndes added another score in the fourth quarter when Cowart hit Tim Harris on a 5-yard touchdown pass to make the final score 28-0.

The Bulldogs 10-13 travel to Nashville Friday to take on the Berrien Rebels in a Region 1-AA matchup.

remaining in the first quarter to replace starter Matt Jurney, and he led Cairo to a 21-0 halftime lead after a 7-0 first quarter lead.

"I'm still going to stay on the table for both our quarterbacks," Hodges said. "They have a hard job trying to learn this new system. They both just need to keep getting more reps."

Defensively, the Syrupmakers did a good job of keeping Hardaway out of the end zone for the shutout. Hardaway ran the ball away from Derrick Peters' side, which gave sophomore linebacker Chris Sessions a chance to have a big night.

"Sessions is a talented sophomore who had a good game," Hodges said.

Even with all the things that went right for Cairo, there were still some low points of the game for the 'Makers. They were penalized eight times for 60 yards and had three turnovers.

"The turnovers and penalties concern me," Hodges said. "We're going to have to get those things under control in the coming weeks. Overall, I was very pleased with our effort. The positives far outweighed the negatives. It was a good team effort. The most important thing is to learn from our first to our second game and try not to make the same mistakes."

Cairo's next game is against Hilton Head, S.C., in Cairo Friday.
